Dedication

Mrs. Gladys Ryan

For efficient, unselfish, and understanding service to the children of Okemah Schools, this Yearbook is dedicated to Mrs. Gladys Ryan who has served as President of the Okemah Board of Education longer than any other person in the history of Okemah and its schools.

Mrs. Ryan's understanding of local school problems, cooperative attitude, sound thinking, and untiring efforts have been guiding influences in the progress of the Okemah Public Schools.

ADMINISTRATION

Board of Education

Mr. Roger Standley

Mr. Jack Jenkins

Mr. Cecil E. Oakes
Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Harry Scoufos

Mr. John Palmer

Mrs. Gladys Ryan

The constant aim of the Board of Education is to provide Okemah with the finest in education. The Okemah Board of Education serves well at this job which demands much sacrifice of time. These members have fulfilled their duties to the taxpayers and have maintained a policy of continuous improvement in our school facilities and instruction.

Dear Students:

Congratulations to each of you for completing another year of school. I am glad you will not remember this school year as the year you dropped out of school. Never be counted as a drop-out, but put forth every effort to be listed among the thousands of high school graduates. High School graduates are better prepared to meet the responsibilities of American citizenship than are the young people who fail to complete a high school education.

As in previous years, the young people in our schools, and those graduating, are confronted with many challenges. Many of the problems before them are difficult, confusing, and need attention; but none needs more immediate attention than the challenge to preserve our American way of life. If we fail to meet this great challenge, the opportunity to solve personal, local, state, and national problems will be lost. The young people must revitalize pride in our American heritage, and certainly the greatest part of this heritage is freedom. The moral fibers of all Americans must be such that the American spirit is not stamped out, nor unity of our people lost. Americans are privileged to live in the greatest land and under the best form of government known to man; but to keep both, we must have patriotism in action. Young people must understand thoroughly and appreciate greatly our form of government - forever uphold and defend our Constitution.

Your greatest challenge is a big one. It is worth every effort and every sacrifice. I believe the students of Okemah schools would join with the young people throughout America in the fight against all enemies of Americanism. Each generation must be determined to see America free, or the Americans of the future will not know liberty. I believe each of you will do your part to keep the light of freedom burning.

Sincerely,

Cecil E. Oakes

Superintendent of Schools

Principal's Message

The 1962 Annual is crowded with countless memories of the year that has just passed.

Ahead of you is the challenge - you can no longer ride on your accomplishments - your accomplishments are nothing but a memory.

The well rounded and full experiences of each student, recorded within these pages, give me great confidence of the days and years ahead. Those of you who leave our campus know that you take with you the confidence, the best wishes, and the endorsement of your Alma Mater. Your faculty stays behind to guide, counsel, and teach the future graduates, but we wish you God's speed to your goal in life.

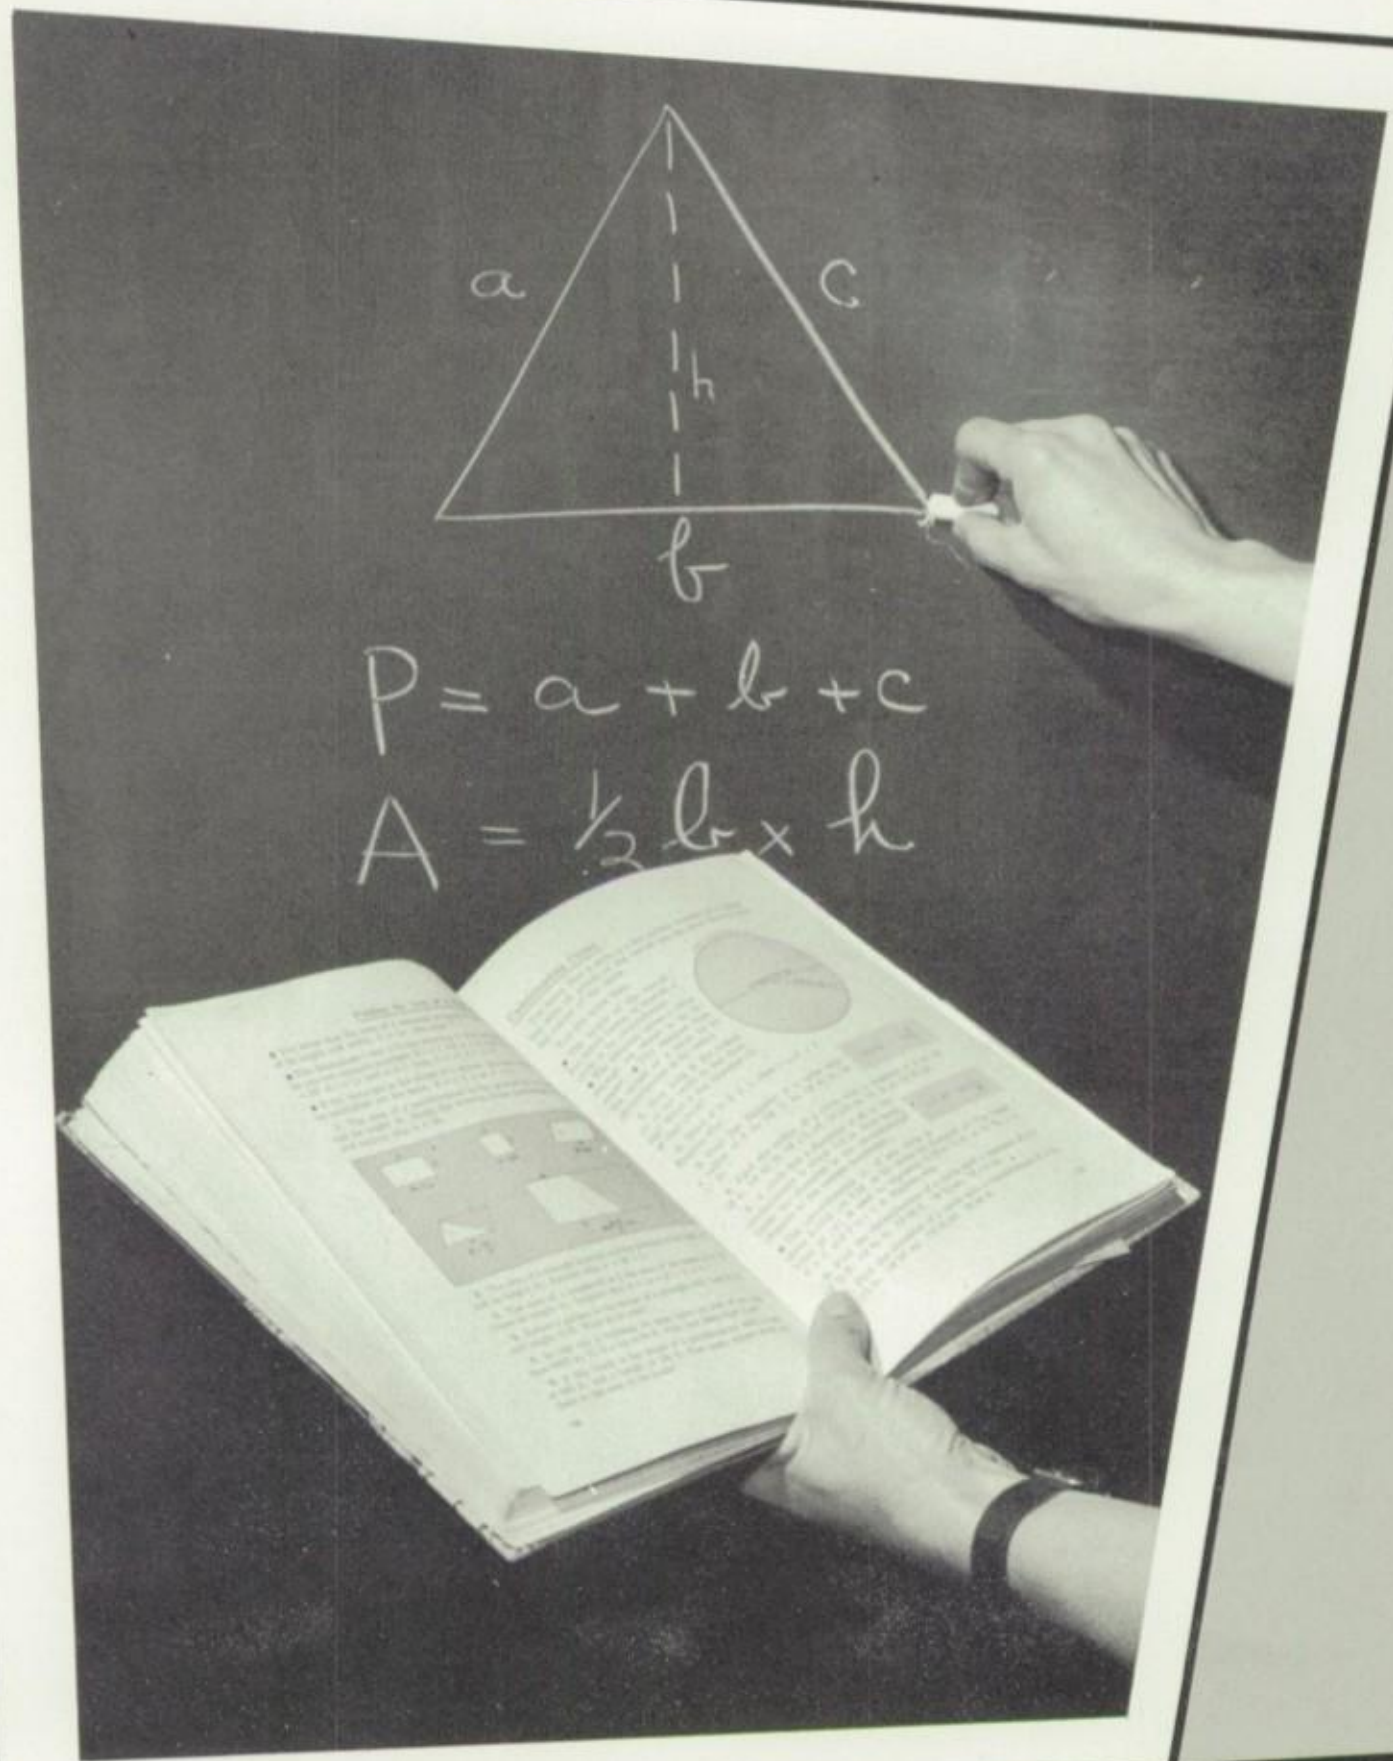

A challenge to you undergraduates - look at the high mark set by this year's seniors for you to equal or excel. But this you will do because you are alert, intelligent, curious, and industrious.

We are proud of the accomplishments of the graduates. You are Okemah's own and we are yours. It will make us proud to see each of you succeed.

"The halls of Okemah High will not be the same,
Since graduation has made its claim,
For who can ever take their place,
Or excel their academic pace?"

My very best wishes will be with each of you always,

Jerome J. Zumwalt

Elementary Schools Sponsor Halloween Carnival

Jan Nolen, Mrs. Weehunt, and Denise Klutts watch a cartoon movie.

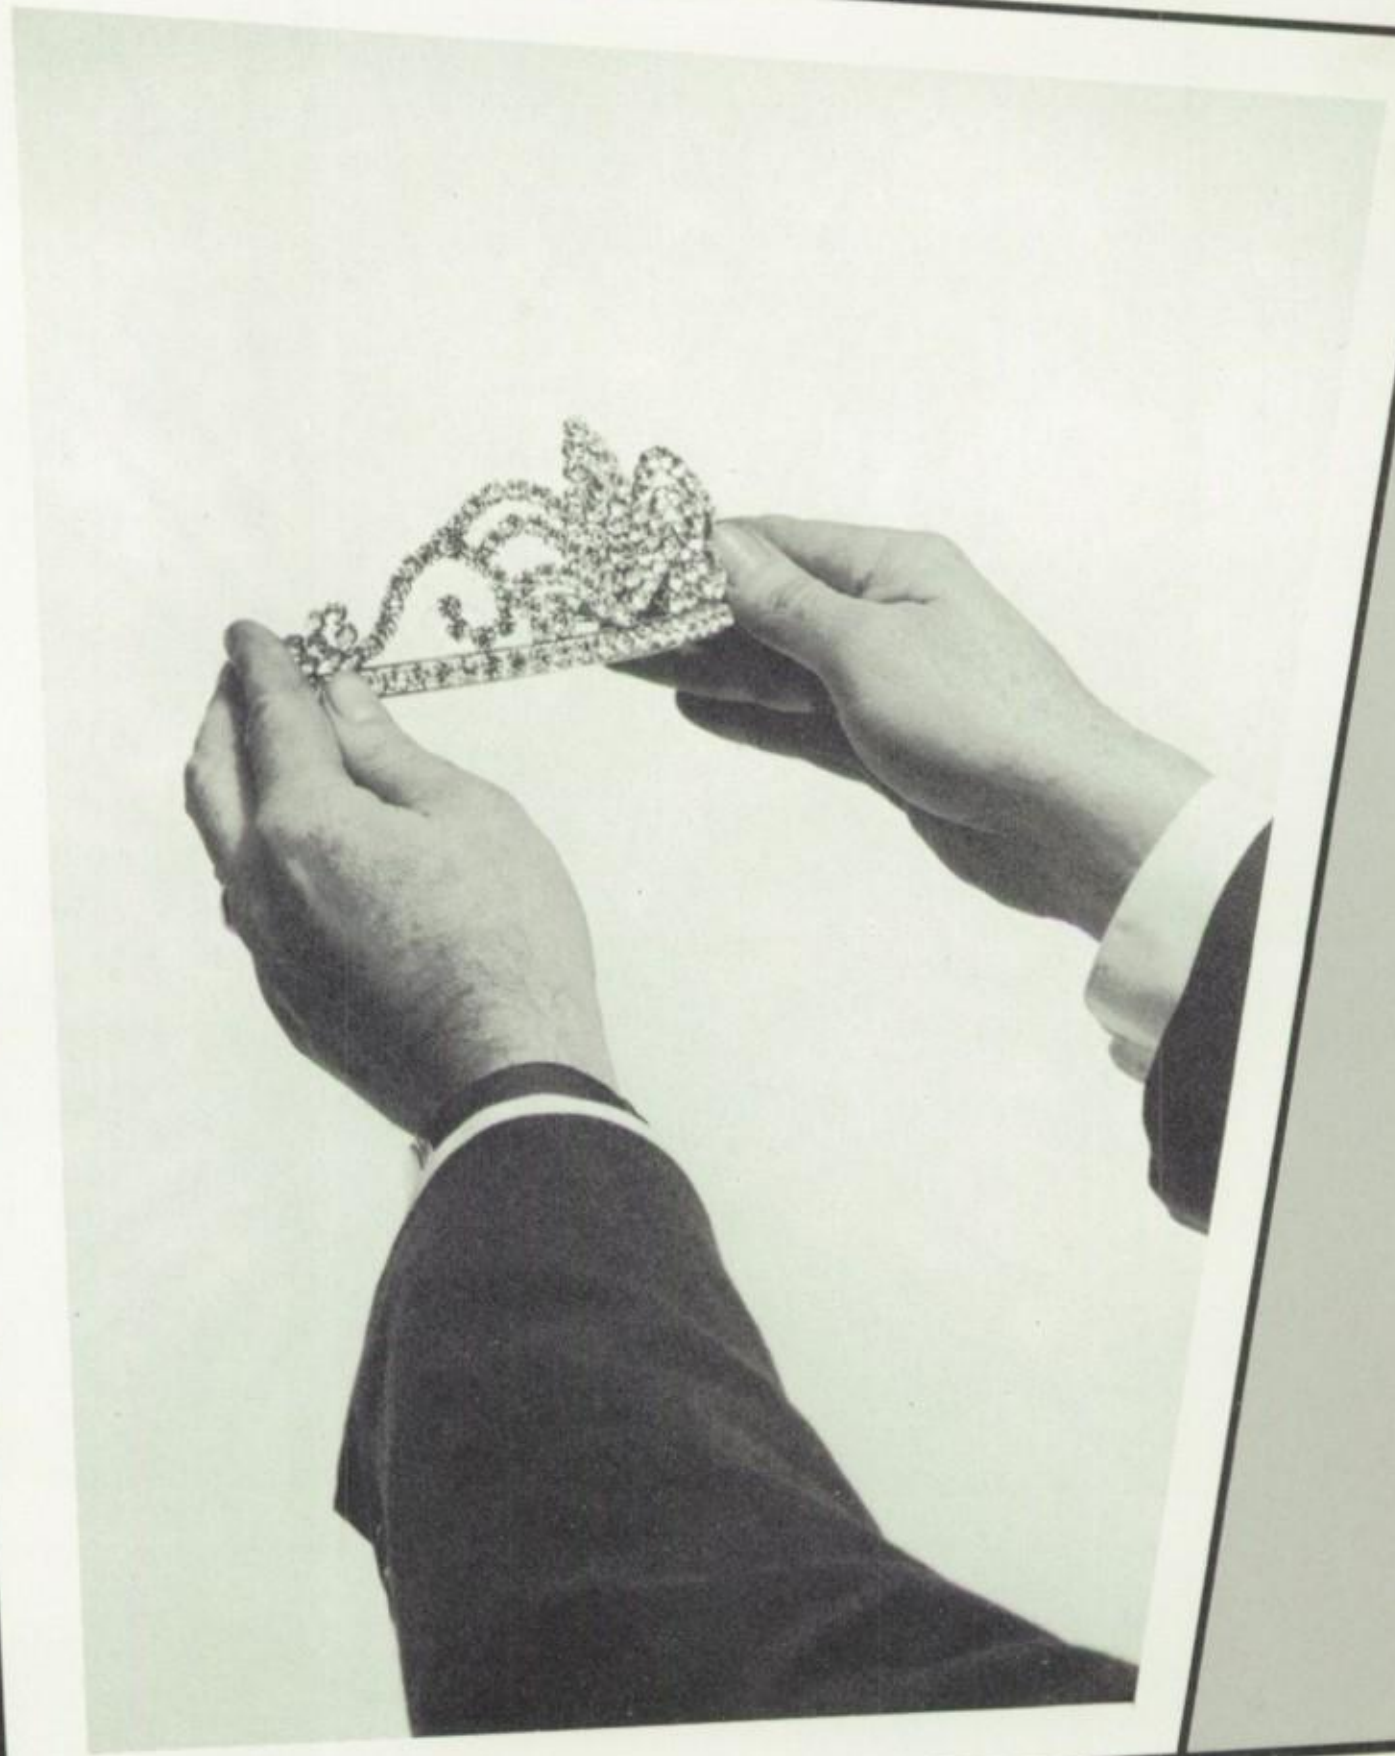

Mrs. Jackson plays with her children as they enjoy a game of musical chairs.

Here is just one of the many unknown spooks who haunted the carnival that night.

Mike Donaghe tries his hand at one of the games while Mrs. Oleson supervises.

The Spanish Class has a new phone to help them this year. Cherie Sciance, Mary Jo Albright, and Amy Sutton seem to be enjoying their practice.

Marrianne Weldon and Diane Davidson carry on a conversation while Jon Miller works the controls.

Spanish Club Has a Christmas Party

Kaye Standley serves cokes to the muchachos while piñata directly from Mexico looks on.

"This is a piñata?" Diana asks.

"Buenos Vecinos" wait for a chance to get the piñata's goodies.

Señora Craig helps serve the punch. The cake was made in the form of a Mexican flag.

Seniors Get Together for Pizza Party

Tony Price and Barbara Thurman help themselves to the delicious salad Mrs. Jackson made for us.

The good food was accompanied by good conversation and lots of fun.

Martin McLemore, Roley Harjo, and Donald Fox discuss "world affairs."

Our hostess, Paula Jackson, enjoyed serving almost as much as we enjoyed being served.

Sixth grade students help with the library by checking out books.

History students make class more interesting by making posters and a castle.

Reading is an important part of a first grade class.

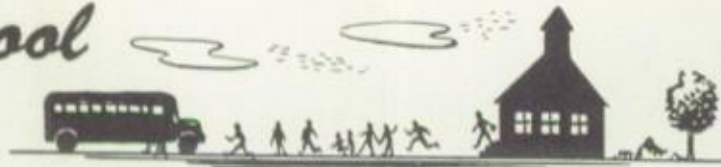

Pencils and wits are sharpened in the second grade.

Fractions are made more interesting for today's fifth graders.

Noble School

Water pressure at work.

Students work hard on their work books.

Bruce Dearman, Charles Green, and Jerry Groves study birds' nests.

Johnnie Green, Jim Parks, and Randy Massey work with addition.

Peggy Ott and Vickie Bradley experiment for acids and bases.

Larry Earnest tells a number story on the class flannel board.

Cub Scouts: Danny Delman, Jimmy Tipton, and James Acosta.

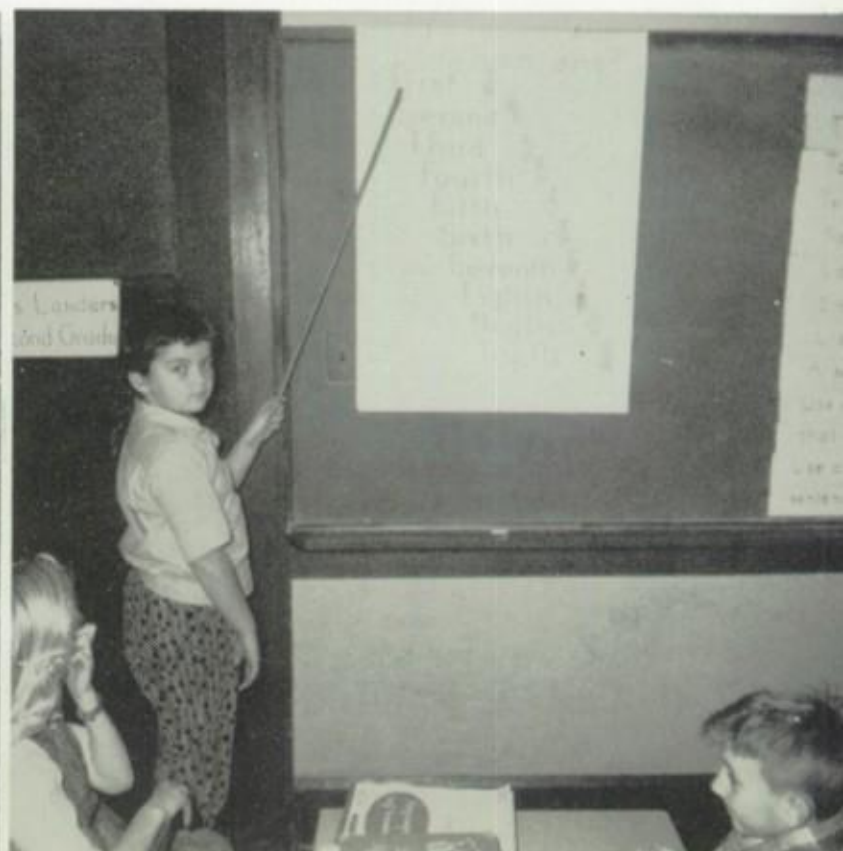

Susan Winters, Judy Cheatwood, and Janis Posey learn to tell time.

Kenny McLemore gives class a demonstration on telling time.

Judy Jeter practices her ordinals in Mrs. Landers' second grade class.

Clean Up Day at High School

Lowell Wood,
Bill Slepka,
and Coy Hammond wait their turn in line. No hurry!

J. R. Brewer
and Darlene Gormly seem to be helping
Danny Flanders
with his house
cleaning.

The football boys are real proud of their new jackets.

Beverly Duncan and
Kathy Clay admire
the school pictures.

Juniors worked to get their Queen candidate elected.
